RK Dixon® receives 13th award from Lanier Worldwide, Inc. Company ranks top four in highest division for sales attainment

DAVENPORT, Iowa (July 1, 2007) – RK Dixon®, a leading provider of enterprise and document solutions, today announced that it was recognized by Lanier Worldwide, Inc. of Atlanta, Georgia as a recipient of the 2006 Dealer Gold Primus Recognition trip. RK Dixon ranked among the top four dealers nationwide with the highest percentage for sales attainment.

In order to be eligible for the award, dealers must achieve at least 100 percent of set purchase quotas for six categories, including; hardware, supply, service, high volume, printers and B2C. Companies that place in the top four of their league are invited on a trip at the end of the contest period.

This is not the first time that the Davenport, Iowa-based RK Dixon has achieved exemplary performance with Lanier, a Ricoh company. The trip will mark the 13th win for the corporation, who earned the honor most recently in 2001.

“Winning this trip is a wonderful tribute to both companies,” said Bryan Dixon, president and CEO of RK Dixon. “We have had great experiences in our long-term partnership with Lanier, and look forward to continuing that success in the future.”

As an acknowledgment of their outstanding performance, Lanier invited Dixon to travel to Rio de Janeiro June 16 through 22. Ricoh Americas' executives will host Dixon at the Caesar Park Hotel located directly on Ipanema Beach
